We want you to make an informed decision about the university that’s right for you. For more about the graduation rate and median debt of students who completed each program, as well as other important information—visit www.APUS.edu/disclosure/MPA.

100% ONLINE CONVENIENCE

» Classes start monthly
» Courses offered in 8 and/or 16 week sessions
» Flexible schedule—Courses generally operate on a weekly schedule. Students are required to log into the classroom at least once per week to complete assignments and participate in class discussions. However, there is no specific login time.

AFFORDABLE

» Highly competitive tuition
» Active Duty Tuition Assistance (TA) programs and eligibility vary by service branch. Depending on your service, TA may cover up to 100% of undergraduate or graduate tuition. Our Financial Aid Office can help with specific TA requirements, Federal Student Aid, as well as G.I. Bill and other veteran’s benefits.*
» We accept up to 15 hours of transfer credit toward your master’s degree. Includes CCAF, Joint Services Transcript (JST); Credit by Examination (e.g. CLEP, DSST, AP); DANTES; ACE-evaluated training; and POST programs.
» FBI National Academy graduates may be awarded up to 15 graduate credits toward the MPA program.
» A grant is provided to cover transfer credit and technology fees for active duty military, reserve, and guard members.

FACULTY ARE “REAL WORLD” LEADERS

Our professors are industry insiders who combine relevant theory with real-world experience. Many of our faculty have worked in positions focusing directly on government contracts and public works programs in politics, federal or local government civil service, general public or private management, military service, and family and child support services.

Visit amuonline.com/public-administration
American Military University’s MPA program helps prepare public agency and policy leaders for managing the most significant challenges of our times. Our graduate students develop concepts, projects, and plans that will prepare them to add value to the communities and organizations they lead at federal, state, and local levels.

36 semester hrs / 12 courses

CORE COURSES (18 SEMESTER HRS / 6 COURSES)

Students must take 6 core courses:

- Administration Theory
- Ethics in Government
- Law and Public Policy
- Public Management
- Public Policy
- Research Methods in Social Science

MAJOR COURSES (15 SEMESTER HRS / 5 COURSES)

Students must select 2 courses from a list of the following:

- Applied Statistics
- Administrative Theory
- Law and Public Policy
- Program Appraiser
- Local Political Administration
- U.S. Presidency, Congress, and Bureaucracy
- Legislatures and Legislative Behavior

In addition, students must select 3 courses in a concentration area. Concentrations are offered in:

- Disaster Management
- Environmental Policy
- Health Policy
- Human Resources
- National Security
- Organizational Management
- Security Management

Concentration courses include:

- Economics of Disaster
- Current and Emerging Threats to U.S. National Security
- Global Environmental Change
- National Security and Globalization
- Organizational Crisis Management

CAPSTONE COURSE (3 SEMESTER HRS)

- Master’s Capstone in Public Administration

For the most current program, concentration, and degree path details, please consult the APUS catalog at: www.apus.edu/catalog

Call 1.877.777.9081 or visit amuonline.com/public-administration